I believe that we must work to alleviate the property tax burden on Pennsylvanians with a realistic, comprehensive approach. I would not oppose eliminating the property tax, but only if we can guarantee reliable and equitable funding for public education, and if it would result in equitable relief without simply picking new winners and losers, or worse, increasing the overall tax burden.

On a scale of one to ten (one being very conservative and 10 being very liberal) how would you describe your political philosophy?

Throughout my service as Pennsylvania's Attorney General, I have defended traditionally conservative values such as 2nd Amendment rights, defending innocent life and protecting state sovereignty. Though I could attempt to gauge my philosophy and assign it a number, I would prefer to maintain my consistent record of taking action on conservative principles and allow interested parties to judge my candidacy according to that record.
