Republicans:

Tom Corbett: website - <http://www.tomcorbettforgovernor.com/splash>

4.) "I support enforcement and enhancement of laws which protect children from exposure to objectionable material." 7.) "I support development . . . but not taxes . . . ." 8.) "I believe that we must work to alleviate the property tax burden . . . with a realistic comprehensive approach. I would not oppose eliminating the property tax, but only if we can guarantee reliable and equitable funding for public education, and if it would result in reliable and equitable relief without simply picking new winners and losers, or worse increasing the overall tax burden."

Philosophy: ". . . Though I could attempt to gauge my philosophy and assign it a number, I would prefer to maintain my consistent record of taking action on conservative principles and allow interested parties to judge my candidacy . . ."

Sam Rohrer: website - <http://www.samrohrer.org/>

3.) "I am opposed to discrimination toward others on the basis of unchangeables, sufficient protection already exist under current law." 5.) "I do not favor the full legalization of marijuana. I do favor the medicinal use by prescription in the same capacity as other prescription drugs." 7.) ". . . opportunity to wisely develop for the benefit of all. I oppose the taxation of this new industry unless part of a complete overhaul of our business tax system." 8.) "I strongly support the complete elimination of property taxes and have fought for it for years. . . a reality by passing HB 1275"

Philosophy: I would describe myself as a Constitutional Republican. Therefore I would be very conservative and a 1.

2.) "I voted for Act 124 of 1996 as a State Senator." (note: this is the Defense of Marriage Act); 4.) "I share your concern and want to review the details of such a proposal"; 5.) ". . . with strict controls to prevent abuse."; 7.) ". . . while I am committed to maximizing these new resources, I am equally committed to ensuring that it is done in an environmentally responsible way. . . "; 8.) "I have consistently supported moving away from property taxes to other forms of taxation" 9.) "(passage of health care bill) and its impact on Pennsylvania have yet to be determined"; 10.) "I support the use of a valid form of identification that is sufficient proof that individuals voting are who . . . ."

Philosophy: "I try to avoid labels for myself and others. I can tell you this – I have always believed that government can be a positive force in citizens' lives, provided that it delivers quality service at market, or below-market, cost. . . ."
