Commissioner Josh Shapiro has asked their solicitor to look at a homosexual special rights ordinance. It will be brought up in the coming months.

News from National Scene

The Obama administration joined 153 other nations on April 2nd in approving an arms trade treaty opposed by the body that must ratify it! In one of the amendments to the Senate Budget in March, lawmakers voted 53 to 46 to stop the United States from joining the treaty -- so it does not look like it will be ratified.

Senate Democrats have voted against an amendment from pro-life Senator Deb Fischer of Nebraska to the budget that would offer Americans conscience protections from the controversial HHS mandate.

District Court Judge Edward Korman struck down Health and Human Services' ban on the sale of the morning after pill to girls 16 and younger, giving the agency 30 days to lift the age and sale restrictions on Plan B. The pill will simply be sold as an over-the-counter drug, no doctor's prescription needed

New data released by the Centers for Disease Control, show there were 19.7 million new venereal infections in the US in 2008, bringing the total number of existing STDs in the U.S. at that time to 110,197,000. Cost? $16 billion annually!
