News from National Scene

Obamacare requires restaurant chains to provide caloric and other nutritional information to customers on standard menu items. The FDA has interpreted the law's language to mean that even grocery and convenience stores would be covered under the law.

Jack Phillips, owner of Masterpiece Cakeshop in Lakewood, CO, is accused of violating state public-accommodation law by declining for religious reasons to bake a cake for homosexual couple's "wedding" reception. He headed to court earlier this month. FYI: If SB 300 passes in Harrisburg, we will see the same type scenarios in PA.

In the nation's first-ever, citizen-initiated referendum, Croatians asked their government to preserve marriage as the union of a man and a woman, by a vote of 65.8%.

In direct violation of federal law, 103 of the 112 Obamacare insurance plans being offered to Members of Congress and congressional staff include coverage for elective abortion.

Under new rules, Senate approves Obama's radical nominees one after another. A few examples: Deborah Lee James - Secretary of the Air Force, Chai Feldblum - EEOC, Cornelia Pillard and Patricia Millett to DC Circuit. AFA of PA encourages Christians, through education, to become involved in pro-family issues in their community, state and the nation.
