News From Around PA
In the lawsuit challenging the PA DOMA, the ACLU says the state's "invasive and overreaching" requests include whether the gay plaintiffs had been involved in opposite-sex relationships and the identity of biological parents of the children involved in the lawsuit.

The US Department of Education has awarded Pennsylvania nearly $52 million in early education Race to the Top money.

The ACLU and Freedom to Marry announced the launch of Why Marriage Matters Pennsylvania, an educational endeavor to build support for same-sex "marriage" in PA. They currently have 60 endorsements from PA businesses, organizations, legislators and faith-based organizations.

Human Rights Campaign Corporate Equality Index gave perfect scores to Philadelphia's Dechert LLP, Comcast Corp. and Morgan, Lewis & Bockius LLP.

United Methodist pastor Frank Schaeffer, defrocked for performing the same-sex "marriage" of his son, has been offered a job in California by a UMC bishop.

News from National Scene
After January 1st the 40- and 60-watt incandescent light bulb sales ban takes effect.

HHS is counting volunteer fireman and other emergency volunteer service members as full-time employees requiring local volunteer fire companies to purchase health insurance for them under Obamacare.

New Mexico and Utah judges legalized same-sex "marriage" in those states.

An email from the Senate Disbursing Office, warns Capitol Hill staffers they shouldn't trust the information provided to them by the new DC Health Link site for Obamacare.

Prentice Hall's The American Experience, which has been aligned to the Common Core, does not tell why America entered World War II. There is no documentation on Pearl Harbor or the Rape of Nanking or the atrocities committed against the Jews or the bombing of Britain. All of World War II has been reduced to dropping the bomb and consequently, we are led to believe, America's inhumanity.

AFA of PA encourages Christians, through education, to become involved in pro-family issues in their community, state and the nation.
