News From Around PA
Bad idea! Sen. Anthony Williams (D-Philadelphia) has proposed to create an appointed commission that would select judicial candidates. Under the bill, the governor would make a nomination out of that group and the state Senate would confirm.

FDA has approved Shippensburg University's Plan B dispensing vending machines. Students at the university can obtain Plan B without waiting for an appointment by depositing $25 in the machine. The machine is located near others which sell condoms and pregnancy tests.

Haverford Township supervisors (Delaware County) will be voting on February 11th for applicants to fill a seven-member human-relations panel "to investigate antibias complaints, and allows for penalties of up to $5,000 per discriminatory act." i.e. bakers who don't want to bake cakes for same-sex "marriages" and those who complain about a man in the women's restroom or shower at the local Y.

News from National Scene
Homosexual group Human Rights Campaign has formed a coalition to support the repeal of the federal Defense of Marriage Act. Members include eBay, Marriot International, Bristol-Myers Squibb, Aetna, Mass Mutual Life Insurance, Kimpton Hotel and Restaurant Group, Sun Life Financial Inc., Thomson Reuters Corp., Giorgio Armani SpA and Biogen Idec Inc.

Creating Change Conference was held in Atlanta January 23-27. It is touted as "the largest annual gathering of activists, organizers and leaders of the LGBT movement." President

Obama made a video welcoming the participants.

As of the close of business on January 23rd the Federal Reserve revealed that its holdings of U.S. government debt had increased to an all-time record of $1,696,691,000,000.

Members of the "gay" Republican group GOProud joined the March for Life this year. However, it is evident they only did it in an effort to gain favor among pro-lifers. Their Facebook post says: "GOProud doesn't have a position on abortion. We want you to join us regardless of your personal beliefs on that issue!"

AFA of PA encourages Christians, through education, to become involved in pro-family issues in their community, state and the nation. We are a non-profit organization that is totally dependent upon financial gifts from our supporters. You can give online here <http://afaofpa.org/donate/>
