News From Around PA

A provision in Obamacare asks states to create state exchanges. The deadline has been moved into December for the governors to let the Department of Health and Human Services know their intentions. Governor Corbett has not rendered a decision. There are a host of reasons not to create state exchanges, but one is each exchange would cost an estimated $10 million to $100 million per year, necessitating tax increases. Fourteen states said 'no.'

More evidence that homosexual activists want total loyalty: Philadelphia homosexuals are attacking 'pro-gay' Wells Fargo for donating used office furniture to the Cradle of Liberty Scout Counsel. Homosexuals have been trying to force the city to evict these Scouts from the headquarters they built and have maintained since 1929.

Homosexual group, Equality PA is thrilled about the election. In addition to the first open homosexual being elected to the State House. Four of their other endorsed candidates won: Rod McCord, Kathleen Kane, Eugene DePasquale and Rob Teplitz

News from National Scene

Mojave Desert cross honoring our war dead has finally been rededicated after an 11 year battle. That's when an atheist sued for its removal. Two years ago the US Supreme Court said the cross could stay. Within days it was stolen. It was just found tied to a fence post near Half Moon Bay, hundreds of miles away!

Fiscal Cliff, the package of tax increases and spending cuts will affect everyone. Middle income families would have to pay an average of $2,000 more next year. Up to 3.4 million jobs would be lost. Stocks could plunge. Collectively, the tax increases would be the steepest to hit Americans in sixty years when measured as a percentage of economy.

In federal court Christian business Hobby Lobby was told by the Obama Administration that they must obey the Health and Human Services (HHS) mandate that forces religious companies to pay for drugs for women that may cause abortions. Remember, the Democrats in Congress simply passed a bill with a basic framework for Obamacare, but HHS gets to actually build the "structure" AFA of PA encourages Christians, through education, to become involved in pro-family issues in their community, state and the nation.
