News From Around PA

A group of 30 Methodist ministers will jointly officiate the marriage of a same-sex couple next month— in violation of church doctrine — to show solidarity with a colleague, Rev. Frank Schaefer, facing possible dismissal for presiding at his homosexual son's wedding.

American Legion Post 311 in Hawley is taking a stand: If prayer by its chaplain is not allowed, Legion members won't be participating in the annual Veterans Day ceremony at Wallenpaupack Area High School on Nov. 11.

Pennsylvania public school districts would be required to post "In God We Trust" in every school building under legislation sponsored by Allegheny County Rep. Rick Saccone. The bill passed the House Education Committee by a 14-to-9 vote.

Earlier this month open homosexual PA State Representative Brian Sims attended the Gay Lesbian Straight Education Network (GLSEN) Respect Awards in Beverly Hills. Afterwards he held fundraisers for his reelection in San Francisco, San Diego and Los Angeles.

News from National Scene

On October 21st New Jersey became the 14th state to legalize same-sex "marriage." Governor Chris Christie has dropped his appeal of the decision made by one judge which forced NJ to legalize counterfeit marriage.

H.R. 3133, the Marriage and Religious Freedom Act – prohibits discrimination through the federal tax code against individuals or institutions that exercise religious conscience regarding marriage as the union of one man and one woman.

President Obama promises to fix HealthCare.gov by the end of November. Meanwhile, they are touting what it calls "improvements" in design, specifically a feature that allows you to "See Plans Now." However, industry analysts, such as Jonathan Wu, point to how the website lumps people only into two broad categories: "49 or under" and "50 or older." Wu said it's "incredibly misleading."

Hundreds of thousands of Americans who purchase their own health insurance have received cancellation notices since August because the plans do not meet Obamacare's requirements.

AFA of PA encourages Christians, through education, to become involved in pro-family issues in their community, state and the nation. We are a non-profit organization that is totally dependent upon financial gifts from our supporters. You can give online here <http://afaofpa.org/donate/>
