News From Around PA

By a vote of 4-3 Stroudsburg Borough (Monroe County) passed a homosexual special rights ordinance and approved the addition of a borough Human Relations Commission.

Senator John Eichelberger has introduced a bill which would prioritize funding to comprehensive health care providers and not abortion facilities.

News from National Scene

A Navy SEAL based in California faces felony child pornography charges after videos of children performing sex acts were found on his cell phone.

The nation's largest homosexual lobby group, the Human Rights Campaign, has launched a new website in an attempt to debunk Dr. Paul R. McHugh, the former psychiatrist-in-chief for Johns Hopkins Hospital and its current Distinguished Service Professor of Psychiatry. Why? Because Dr. McHugh is very effective in giving sound biological arguments against the idea that anyone can change sex.

In a recent interview Bruce "Caitlyn" Jenner reports that he has become "distant" with some of his six children. He also notes they still call him "Dad" and added "the reality of her transition has been difficult."

An Indiana State University Professor has been charged with obstruction of justice and harassment in connection to an anti-Muslim hate crime hoax.

Target has fired at least five top executives in recent weeks. The most recent one was a 20 year employee.

California and Minnesota are still banning state travel to North Carolina even though that state passed a compromise on HB 2. In January, California passed a law that "prohibits state-funded and state-sponsored travel to and expenditures in states with laws that discriminate against the LGBT community."

Freedom From Religion Foundation has sent a letter to Ole Miss demanding that the school prohibit their football coach from posting Scripture on his Twitter feed.

A war memorial containing a cross is back up at Veterans Memorial Park in Belle Plaine, Minnesota.

Transgender woman claims in a lawsuit that Idaho has violated the 1st Amendment by refusing to change the sex on her birth certificate.

Nebraska Senate killed a bill that would have added "sexual orientation" and "gender identity" to that state's employment nondiscrimination statutes.
