News from National Scene

The Obama Administration released the first update to the National HIV/AIDS Strategy. Vision of the plan: helping the nation "become a place where new HIV infections are rare, and when they do occur, every person, regardless of age, gender, race/ethnicity, sexual orientation, gender identity or socio-economic circumstance, will have unfettered access to high-quality, life-extending care, free from stigma and discrimination." (Note: extending policies that validate the lifestyle that is the center of the epidemic will not help attain this goal.)

Amnesty International passed a policy endorsing the decriminalization of prostitution, recommending "full decriminalization of all aspects of consensual sex work." It argues its research suggests decriminalization is the best way to defend sex workers' human rights.

Arkansas has become the fourth state to defund Planned Parenthood.

Center for Immigration Studies reports the total Mexican immigration population in the United States stands at 12.1 million people as of this year, a jump from 11.4 million a year ago.
