News From Around PA

AG Kathleen Kane announced she won't defend a new law granting out-of-state groups like the NRA the right to sue municipalities enacting gun ordinances stricter than state law.

PA's $2 billion budget shortfall is being met with the blame game. Republicans say the mid-year budget review shows mandated spending, such as pensions and Medicaid, are causing the shortfall and Democrats have thrown up roadblocks to stop reform. No matter who's to blame, it should be noted that Gov. Corbett inherited a $4 billion shortfall from Ed Rendell.

A new "player" in the email porn scandal: the PA Turnpike Commission! The agency has disciplined 11 people for using its e-mail system for porn.

US Dept of Justice is upset that only 70 percent of female PA State Police recruits pass the physical readiness tests and is seeking to prevent the state police "from engaging in discriminatory employment practices" plus back pay and other remedies for women who did not pass the test.

News from National Scene

Homosexual groups are taking their next battle to Washington, DC in an attempt to push through a law similar to the Civil Rights Act of 1964 giving the LGBT crowd the same protections.

President Obama's amnesty plans could cost the US $2.6 trillion causing a fiscal deficit of some $6.3 trillion.

A change to a Pentagon personnel policy loosens the rules barring transgender troops from serving in the U.S. military, giving the individual services leeway to retain these personnel.

In three weeks, Utah intends to seize control of 31.2

million acres of its own land now under control of the federal government. Gov. Gary Herbert in 2012 signed the "Transfer of Public Lands Act," which demands that Washington relinquish its hold on the 64.5 percent of Utah land it currently controls by Dec. 31.

The Florida Department of Management recently approved an application for a holiday display from the Satanic Temple. It depicts a falling angel about to be engulfed in the fires of Hell.

Thirteen of President Obama's judicial nominees have been confirmed since the November 4th election!
