News From Around PA

A routine audit of university computers found Bloomsburg University professor Scott Lowe had been viewing child porn on his office computer.

The Lehigh County Executive has signed two administrative orders "to protect and promote equality." The first adds "gender identity and gender expression" to the county's equal employment clause and the second requires those who contract with the county to also have 'sexual orientation/gender identity or expression' in their non-discrimination policies.

State College Borough Council has voted to ban talk therapy for minors with unwanted same-sex attraction or gender confusion. Councilman David Brown is not satisfied that it just bans licensed therapists, but wants it to also ban counseling from pastors and ministers.

The Human Rights Campaign's HRC Rising Initiative "has made an especially strong, early push to organize against the Trump-Pence agenda and turn out the millions of equality voters in Arizona, Michigan, Nevada, Ohio, Pennsylvania, and Wisconsin." (We must show up at the polls in May!)

News from National Scene

Lucas Warren, a 1-year-old from Dalton, Georgia is the 2018 Gerber "spokesbaby." He is the first ever Gerber Baby with Down Syndrome!

An Ohio couple has lost custody of their 17-year old daughter who identifies as a male because they refused to authorize the administration of hormones to aid her "gender transition." A lawyer representing the girl cited the couples' Christian beliefs, their efforts to seek out a Christian therapist and their daughter's enrollment in a Catholic school as reasons to remove her from the home!

New census rules: deployed troops and civilian employees will be counted at their usual home address in the United States, not their home of record, usually a home town or where they entered military service.

The US Dept. of Ed has announced it will not investigate any bathroom complaints from students who identify as transgender.

The Leadership Conference on Civil and Human Rights has issued a statement on the 1-year anniversary of the US AG being in office: "Jeff Sessions is not an Attorney General for all people." Particularly cited was "attacks" on voting rights and LGBT rights. Click for a list of its far left members.
