News From Around PA

The attorneys who won a court order to allow a middle school girl to wrestle in the Line Mountain School District will receive only about half the fees they requested - $70,948 compared with the $140,681 requested.

Philadelphia Phillies Gay Community Night will be held August 5th.

The Inne at the Abingtons in Lackawanna County has refused to provide a wedding venue for a lesbian couple.

News from National Scene

In order to protest the FDA's total ban on homosexual men from donating blood, the second annual National Gay Blood Drive was held recently. An "ally" of a homosexual man steps in and gives blood in his stead. Open homosexual State Rep Brian Sims says the ban is "based in fear and discrimination." Hmm, he must not have read the recent stories of people getting HIV from tainted blood and organs that were donated by "gay" men who did not tell the truth about their sexual preference.

Congressman Jackie Speier (D-CA) introduced Military Separation Pay Fairness Act which would provide the separation pay that was denied to homosexual servicemembers who were discharged under the Don't Ask, Don't Tell policy.

Oversight & Gov't Reform Chairman Darrell Issa (R-CA) has sent President Obama a letter calling for an end to the 2012 executive order granting stays of deportation to children brought into the country illegally by their parents. The letter is signed by 32 other Republicans (none from PA!) saying it would send a clear message that immigration laws would be upheld, thus discouraging the current influx of children from Central America.

Oklahoma Supreme Court upholds law passed that repealed Common Core.

US Supreme Court rules President Obama violated the Constitution when he moved two years ago to make recess appointments to the National Labor Relations Board while Congress was still in session.

A bill failed in the US Senate that would have repealed part of the Religious Freedom Restoration Act upon which the Hobby Lobby decision was based. Senator Bob Casey voted for forcing Christian businesses to provide abortion and contraception in insurance. AFA of PA encourages Christians, through education, to become involved in pro-family issues in their community, state and the nation. We are a non-profit organization that is totally dependent upon financial gifts from our supporters. You can give online here <http://afaofpa.org/donate/>
