News From Around PA

Liberals are in an uproar because Chloe's Law was signed on July 18th to protect pre-born Downs Syndrome babies. It mandates that doctors read a script to pregnant patients after delivering the diagnosis

Over 500 illegal immigrant children, among the tens of thousands who have flooded the southern border, are being housed in PA.

The Delaware Valley School District will provide the same insurance coverage for same-sex "spouses" of employees and eligible dependents as would be provided to opposite-sex spouses and dependents, including health, dental and vision plans.

Chesterbrook, PA-based Auxilium Pharmaceuticals Inc. agreed to take control of biotechnology firm QLT Inc. in a $345 million stock deal that will re-domicile the company in Canada. The merger is the latest in a series of cross-border deals proposed by U.S. companies seeking lower tax rates.

News from National Scene

A three-judge panel of the D.C. Circuit Court of Appeals said Obamacare does not permit the IRS to distribute premium subsidies in the federal exchanges, meaning those consumers in more than two dozen states must bear the full cost.

The CDC recommends boys and girls get three doses of HPV vaccine starting at age 11, but a study found only 57% of girls and 35% of boys, between the ages of 13 to 17, received at least one dose. Human papillomavirus is sexually transmitted and causes cervical, throat and mouth cancers. Perhaps parents don't like the message this vaccination sends!

Archie Andrews, the famous red-headed comic book character, has died in a recent installment of "Life with Archie" when he intervenes in an assassination attempt on senator Kevin Keller, Archie Comics' first openly gay character who is pushing for more gun control .

National Center for Health Statistics, study found "gay", lesbian and bisexual adults are likelier to smoke and be heavy drinkers compared with heterosexuals. The findings, based on answers from more than 34,000 adults, reveal that 1.6 percent of the population is gay or lesbian, 0.7 percent is bisexual, and 97.7 percent is heterosexual.
