News From Around PA

Philly homosexual man is asking Social Security Administration to give him spousal-survivor benefits in the death of his "spouse." They had only been "married" three months, but claims to have been in a common law marriage for 25 years. Last year Orphans' Court Judge George W. Overton agreed and the plaintiff is seeking a federal court order to force Social Security to issue benefits.

As the result of an unannounced visit the PA Department of Health (DOH) ordered the Hillcrest Women's Medical Center abortion facility in Harrisburg to shut down on June 5. DOH uncovered "serious deficiencies and violations."

HB 271 was originally introduced to further provide programs for compulsive and problem gambling. After numerous amendments, however, the HB 271 that the House passed by a vote of 102-89 adds thousands of video gaming terminals in bars, taverns and clubs and at truck stops, internet gambling run by casinos, bets on fantasy sports games, airport tablet gambling, slot machines at casino-run off-track betting parlors.

Philadelphia City Hall began flying a more "inclusive" rainbow flag on Thursday. This one included a black and brown stripe to include blacks and Latinos who identify as LGBT.

Why is the media afraid to talk about a pro-life rally? As Christine Flowers, columnist for the Delco Times and one of the keynote speakers at the June 6th pro-life rally in Harrisburg, wrote, " Other than my column last week in another paper, you probably haven't heard it mentioned anywhere else. You would have heard about a baby gorilla being born. You probably heard about the latest Toomey protest . . . but I doubt you heard about this rally."

Beware your local library! All branches of the Philadelphia Free Library are holding dedicated LGBT Pride events throughout the month of June. The program is called "Free Library of Pride."

News from National Scene

You don't have to live in Philly to be concerned about the books/programs your local library may have that promote the homosexual/transgender lifestyles. There's a new middle-grade novel, The Lottery's Plus One, This book is not just about one lesbian couple raising children, but TWO lesbian couples who are "co-parenting" seven children!

TX Governor Greg Abbott has signed a law that requires women to bury or cremate the remains of their aborted baby.
