

Volume 7, Issue 18

May 6, 2017

Remember: Printable versions to share found at <http://afaofpa.org/weekly-newsletter/>

Check Our Recent Interview

<http://afaofpa.org/listen/>

News From Around PA

PinnacleHealth said it will remain an in-network provider for United Healthcare for at least another year.

Jay Paterno, son of the late Joe Paterno has been elected to the Penn State board.

Pennsylvania's retirement age population is projected to balloon in the coming decade, while its working-age population shrink, leading to a budget dilemma.

Canada is working towards adding a new gender marker to its passports to accommodate transgender travelers. Did you know that since August 2010 those who identify as the opposite sex can change gender on their PA drivers license?

Wilson Area School District Superintendent and Easton

Area School District Assistant Superintendent (Northampton County) have posted letters on their respective school websites warning parents of Netflix's show 13 Reasons Why. They fear the show could stoke vulnerable young people's suicidal urges.

News from National Scene

The Interior Department has identified 27 national monuments, mostly in Western states, that it is reviewing for possible changes to the protections created by Republican and Democratic presidents over the past two decades.

The Veterans Memorial Park in Belle Plaine, MN will soon include a monument placed there by the Satanic Temple.

Netflix has renewed 13 Reasons Why for another season. The series centers on the suicide of a teenager.

The Freedom From Religion Foundation has filed suit against President Donald Trump over his religious freedom executive order.

National Task Force for Therapy Equality filed a consumer fraud complaint with the Federal Trade Commission against the homosexual groups Human Rights Campaign and the National Center for Lesbian Rights, as well as the Southern Poverty Law Center over their efforts to ban sexual orientation change therapy. The complaint notes the groups are "knowingly distorting the scientific research to promote efforts to ban licensed psychotherapy," and are "distorting the scientific research by promoting the 'Born Gay' hoax."

United Methodist Judicial Council

ruled that Western Jurisdiction violated church law when it elected an open lesbian as the bishop of UMC's Mountain Sky Area.

We are a non-profit organization that is totally dependent upon financial gifts from our supporters. You can give online here <http://afaofpa.org/donate/>

Follow

Us

Publication of the AFA of PA, POB 1048, Franklin, PA 16323

Phone: 814-271-9078

Fax: 814-437-5432

Website: <http://afaofpa.org>