More info on the municipality opt out re gambling: If your local municipality -- city, borough or township -- passes a resolution to ban a mini-casino (contain between 300 and 750 slot machines and up to 40 table games), the ban can be overturned by a future council. The new gambling law states if the ban is ever overturned, it can never be reinstated! So, if your municipality does pass the mini-casino ban, it will take the vigilance of the voters to make sure the right people get elected to council and that the ban stays in place locally.

Companies in Philly that have received a 100 percent rating from the largest homosexual lobby group in the nation, the Human Rights Campaign, for the past two years: Comcast NBCUniversal; Aramark Corp.; Blank Rome LLP; Morgan, Lewis & Bockius LLP; and Pepper Hamilton LLP. Philly-based Chubb Corp., Ballard Spahr LLP, Duane Morris LLP and Saul Ewing Arnstein & Lehr LLP were added to those with a 100 percent rating because of their pro-homosexual policies.

Conneaut School District School Board (Crawford County) voted 7 to 1 with two abstentions at a recent meeting to allow a homosexual Gay-Straight Alliance (GSA) Club to be formed. David Moore and Melissa Flinchbaugh were named as co-advisers to the club. Other area schools with GSAs are Meadville, General McLane, and McDowell.

State Representative Rick Saccone (R-Allegheny) was named the GOP nominee for the March 13th special election that has been called to replace Congressman Tim Murphy (PA-18).

Parents in the West Allegheny School District have formed the Coalition for Clean Reading to address the vulgar and obscene materials that are included in the high school required reading list.

News from National Scene

A 40-foot Peace Cross has stood in Bladensburg, MD since 1925. It is dedicated to the 49 sons of Prince George's County who died in WWII and paid for by county families and the American Legion. Two federal judges from the 4th Circuit ruled it "excessively entangles the government and religion" and must come down.

Col. Leland Bohannon, a highly-decorated/ respected colonel, has been punished by the Air Force after he refused to publicly affirm the same-sex spouse of a retiring subordinate.
