President Obama has nominated Debo Adegbile to head the Department of Justice Civil Rights Division as Assistant U.S. Attorney General. The Fraternal Order of Police slammed the nomination referring to Adegbile as "a volunteer supporter and defender of convicted Black Panther and murderer" of Philadelphia police officer Daniel Faulkner. Adegbile worked to undo the death sentence of Mumia Abu-Jamal.

Lehigh County's new executive has rescinded a directive that would have extended benefits to county employees who are legally "married" to the same sex.

A homosexual math teacher at the Allegheny Intermediate Unit is suing to get health benefits for his same-sex partner saying not to receive them violates Allegheny County's anti-discrimination ordinance.

Pittsburgh City Council elected open homosexual councilman Bruce Kraus to be its next president.

A Cornell University professor found that more than 70 percent of teens who said they had ever had a same-sex "romantic attraction" later told researchers that they were unreservedly heterosexual.

Coca-Cola has launched a series of TV ads in four countries- Ireland, Holland, Norway, Britain- portraying same-sex relationships as a counterweight to "hatred."

Sixteen House Republicans, including PA's Lou Barletta, signed onto a letter to President Obama declaring amnesty would be a "final economic blow" for America.

AFA of PA encourages Christians, through education, to become involved in pro-family issues in their community, state and the nation. We are a non-profit organization that is totally dependent upon financial gifts from our supporters. You can give online here http://afaofpa.org/donate/