News From Around PA
Doylestown Borough has amended its anti-discrimination ordinance "to protect a woman's right to breast-feed in public." Councilwoman Joan Doyle voted against it stating, "This affects local businesses. It makes it difficult for an owner to balance concern for customers . . . ." In August 2010 she voted for the addition of 'sexual orientation and gender identity' to their ordinance and did not voice any concern for local businesses forced to hire homosexuals, bisexuals and transgenders.

Garret Conover, Former scout master of Troop 284 in Radnor was arrested for possession of child pornography. His laptop was found to contain video files of a 12- or 13-year-old boy taking his clothes off in front of a web camera, in addition to other child porn.

Philadelphia City Council will soon be looking at legislation to streamline the city's domestic-partner application process for legally "married" same-sex couples.

New from National Scene
On September 19th, Senator Dick Durbin of Illinois proposed that the U.N. Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities be adopted by the Senate by unanimous consent. Under unanimous consent, only one Senator is needed to object Senator Mike Lee of Utah did and stopped this dangerous treaty. However, there is still the danger of it being brought up during the lame duck session after the November election.

September 20th marked the one year anniversary since the repeal of the law banning homosexuals from serving in the military. Activists are claiming there have been no problems, but polling of service members by Military Times tells a different story. Twenty percent expressed harm done to their unit cohesion because of the presence of a homosexual member. Chaplains have been disciplined and other military personnel have been prohibited by senior officers from reporting problems.

Obamacare allows for the sterilization of 15 year-old girls without parental consent and recently HHS confirmed the law's ban on sex-based discrimination includes discrimination based on gender identity. So, there can be no discrimination against men who think they are women.
