Scott Perry's Responses: 1.) endorsed by the NRA and received their highest rating; prime sponsor of the Castle Doctrine Bill in Pennsylvania that was signed into law by the Governor; 4.) generally supportive of this, but federal oversight should be restricted with the majority of the enforcement done at the state and lower level; 7.) I am Pro-Life except for the instance of rape, incest or life of the mother. I believe this decision should be overturned and allow each state to decide what the law would be per the 10th Amendment; 8.) I am hesitant to sign on to any legislation before reading it and knowing all that is included in it . . . in reading over some material on this issue, I am generally supportive of it; 10.) I have not signed any pledges this campaign. I have a record of accomplishment in the state house. I have fought for a smaller government, lower taxes and less red tape

Harry Perkinson's Responses: 1.) I support reasonable restrictions; (Endorsed by Equality PA)

Mike Koffenberger's Responses: 2.) I do not believe that the federal government should have any say what so ever in the construction and operation of the pipeline. 3.)federal government should not be involved in defining or regulating marriages; 6.) and I would not support federal funding of organizations that promote pro life organizations either; 7.) federal government should not be involved; 8.) feel that Section Two is vague enough to allow loopholes; 10.) lengthy plan detailed on my web site that deals with taxes.
