

American Family Association of Pennsylvania Weekly Update

Volume 7, Issue 13

April 1, 2017

Remember: Printable

versions to share found at <http://afaofpa.org/weekly-newsletter/>

Check Our Recent Interview

<http://afaofpa.org/listen/>

News From Around PA

Philly Mayor Jim Kenney still maintains his city will remain a sanctuary city despite the recent announcement by AG Jeff Sessions that cities requesting federal grant dollars must verify they are in compliance with federal law requiring info sharing with immigration officials.

Former Penn State President Graham Spanier has been convicted of child endangerment in connection to the Jerry Sandusky scandal. Conspiracy charges were dismissed.

While Johnstown City Council voted to table a bathroom bill, Kennett Square and Phoenixville voted to open bathrooms to whomever.

News from National Scene

With only four days notice, more than 300 citizens squeezed into council chambers to object to a bathroom ordinance. Parkersburg, WV city council decided to table it!

The Alabama House recently advanced the Alabama Child Placing Agency Inclusion Act which "prohibits the state from discriminating against child placing agencies on the basis that the provider declines to provide a child placement that conflicts with the religious beliefs of the provider." It also prohibit the state from denying a license or license renewal to an agency that refuses to "carry out an activity" against its religion. The SD governor recently signed a similar law.

Succumbing to threats from the NCAA, the North Carolina legislature voted to repeal HB 2, but still retain their authority over public multi-stall restrooms. Additionally, municipalities still cannot pass homosexual special rights ordinance. They will revisit the issue in 2020.

A Montana lawmaker introduced a bill calling for a voter referendum on whether to ban transgender people from school and public restrooms and locker rooms that don't match their gender at birth.

USAF Colonel Michael Madrid is once again being targeted for his Christian beliefs. His new commander dug through personnel files and found the closed investigation that cleared Madrid of false claims by a court-marshaled homosexual airman. Without any new evidence, the new CO decided Madrid was guilty and issued a letter of reprimand.

New Power Rangers movie has a character who is questioning her sexuality.

Mars Candy pro-LGBT campaign features rainbow wrappers for Snickers.

We are a non-profit organization that is totally dependent upon financial gifts from our supporters. You can give online here <http://afaofpa.org/donate/>

Follow Us

Publication of the AFA of PA, POB 1048, Franklin, PA 16323

Phone: 814-271-9078

Fax: 814-437-5432

Website: <http://afaofpa.org>