News From Around PA

The Human Rights Campaign (HRC), the nation's largest homosexual lobby group, recently released its sixth annual Municipal Equality Index. The average score for cities in Pennsylvania is 75 out of 100 points, which falls above the national average of 57. The top ten PA cities and their scores are: Allentown - 100%; Carlisle - 72%; Erie - 39%; Harrisburg - 56%; New Hope - 80%; Philadelphia - 100%; Pittsburgh - 100%; Reading - 66%; State College - 73%; Wilkes-Barre - 62%.

In 2017 Ambler Borough, Dickson City, Wilkes-Barre City, Carlisle, Kennett Square, Phoenixville, Royersford, Camp Hill, Stroudsburg, and Upper Dublin Township each passed homosexual special rights nondiscrimination ordinances.

Recently HRC launched HRC Rising to counter President Trump's "anti-LGBT agenda" and to mobilize voters in six states, including PA. " Ahead of the 2018 midterm elections, HRC has identified more than 2,005,000 Pennsylvanians as likely Equality Voters -- those who are strong supporters of policies that advance LGBTQ equality, including marriage equality and other measures prohibiting discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation and gender identity."

News from National Scene

The House voted overwhelmingly 364-58 to table a resolution from Rep. Al Green (D-Texas) laying out articles of impeachment against President Trump. PA Congressmen Robert Brady and Dwight Evans voted for impeachment.

According to a report in the Economist, the number of "gay marriages" has been far smaller than ever predicted. In the US, only one in ten gays and lesbians (roughly a third of one percent of all marriages) have entered into a same-sex marriage, and in the U.K., less than 6,000 such weddings took place when at least 9,000 were expected. It is quite evident their main purpose for seeking "marriage equality" was not to 'marry,' but to force Americans to celebrate their lifestyle!

David Ermold, an assistant professor of English at the University of Pikeville in Kentucky, has announced he will run against Rowan County clerk Kim Davis in 2018. She refused to issue a "marriage" license to Ermold and his male partner in 2015. She won her case and still does not issue such licenses, but an assistant in her office does. That's not good enough for Ermold as he announced his run against Davis.
