Good Proposed bills this week: Constitutional amendment calling for voter ID; Regulating massage parlors to prevent human trafficking: Bad Proposed bills this week: Requiring LGBTQ-inclusive curriculum in K-12 schools; Same day voter registration.

Community College of Philly just installed a free vending machine “stocked with reproductive and sexual health supplies, such as condoms and pregnancy tests, and other “health jaws”. That includes COVID-19 tests, menstrual products, toothbrushes and hygiene items, fentanyl and xylazine testing strips, and more.”

March 25th has been set for the special elections to fill the seat opened by the Jan. 19 death of Rep. Matt Gergely in Allegheny County and to fill the Senate seat opened by the resignation of former Sen. Ryan Aument, R-Lancaster, who took a job working for U.S. Sen. David McCormick.

News From National Scene
Federal employees had to remove pronouns from their email signatures by the end of the business day Friday.

In order to comply with President Trump’s executive order, West Point Military Academy and the Air Force Academy have both ended their “Diversity and Inclusion Studies” minors.

However, the San Antonio-based Air Education and Training Command went too far (possibly in a retaliatory move against President Trump’s removal of DEI???) and removed Tuskegee Airmen videos and curriculum about the Tuskegee Airmen from its military instruction. Secretary of Defense Pete Hegseth immediately stepped in and everything was restored.

Even though military academies and many corporations are moving away from DEI, Costco is stubbornly clinging to it. A coalition of attorney generals from red states wrote to Costco warning “under the new Trump administration and the Supreme Court’s recent decision in Students for Fair Admission v. Harvard, these extreme identity politics would no longer be tolerated. “Although Costco’s motto is ‘do the right thing,’” the AGs point out, “it appears the company is doing the wrong thing — clinging to DEI policies that courts and businesses have rejected as illegal.

A first in the nation: The Idaho House of Representatives passed a resolution to reject Obergefell by a 46-24 vote. Remember this is the US Supreme Court decision forcing “same-sex marriage” on all the states.

The state of California has dropped all charges against David Daleiden and Sandra Merritt, whose videos exposed the illegal sale of baby body parts by Planned Parenthood. Remember these charges were brought by then California Attorney General Kamala Harris!
