State Senator Steven Santarsiero just began circulating a co-sponsorship memo to recognize February 15th as “Love is Love Day” in PA. According to the memo, this is necessary because: “Those who identify as lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, questioning, asexual, and other sexual minorities (LGBTQ+) are often excluded from Valentine’s Day mainstream media coverage.

A Philly firefighter, a man who now identifies as female, is suing the City of Philadelphia, Independence Blue Cross and the Firefighters and Paramedics Local 22 for alleged anti-transgender bias after being denied coverage for “facial feminization surgery”.

“Pride Night with the Erie Otters” will be March 16th!

Soon there will be a “mobile sex dungeon” called Dungeon Crawler coming to Pittsburgh for those who are into BDSM!

News From National Scene

A New York mom is suing the Skaneateles Central School District and Board of Education, accusing them of violating her rights through their social transitioning of her 12-year-old daughter, Jane. The complaint said, the district began treating Jane as though she were a boy—“just as it had done with several other girls in her grade.”

Half of Republican state attorneys general and many of their immediate predecessors have faced ethics challenges against their law licenses. The 65 Project, in retaliation for joining the 2020 litigation TX v. PA, which demanded that GA, MI, PA, and WI follow their election laws, is spearheading the effort.

First Circuit Court of Appeals ruled that Maine had to release its voter registration information (that had been requested back in 2019) to the Public Interest Legal Foundation, a conservative public interest law firm. The law firm sued in 2020.

University of Wisconsin Oshkosh offers a free leadership development program for all students except straight white students.

Washington state is considering bills to provide adult dancers with compensation protections and mandatory security. It is dubbed the “strippers’ bill of rights”.

Indian immigrants moved to Washington State and enrolled their children in the Olympia School District. Unbeknownst to them it is one of at least 1,000 districts nationwide that have enacted secrecy policies to keep parents in the dark. Their daughter’s teacher was an advocate of gender ideology and socially transitioned the girl without the parents’ knowledge. When they received subtle threats about losing custody of her because of their concerns, they fled the United States!
