News From Around PA

Dr. Jessica Rothchild, a Democrat, LGBTQ activist and out lesbian, has declared her candidacy for a seat on Scranton City Council.

Homosexuals in Philly are lamenting the four faded rainbow painted crosswalks at 13th and Locust as no one is stepping forward to maintain them. A petition is being circulated asking the city to paint the Walt Whitman bridge in rainbow colors.

SE PA Planned Parenthood is beginning to offer the PrEP regimen for “gay” men and hormone treatment for transgenders.

Last year, the PA Dept. of Health reported that over the past several years, there have been 40 to 60 hepatitis-A cases reported. That number jumped to 81 in 2018. The CDC reported a national increase of hepatitis-A cases with more than 2,500 new diagnoses reported from January 2017 to April 2018. They note that nearly 10% of new hep-A cases are among men who have sex with men.

The nation’s largest homosexual lobby group, the Human Rights Campaign, recently released its “2018 State Equality Index.” It lists PA as “High Priority to Achieve Basic Equality.” We are in their crosshairs!

News From National Scene

Sex traffickers are attracted to large sporting events like this weekend’s Super Bowl. Authorities say 33 people have been arrested in Atlanta on sex trafficking charges ahead of the Super Bowl. Four victims of sex trafficking have thus far been rescued.

Mercedes-Benz Stadium, where the Super Bowl will be played, does have a Chick-fil-A location, but it will not open for the game as it adheres to corporate policy of always being closed on Sundays.

US House Democrats voted to give pay raises to federal employees who were disciplined for sexual misconduct. They blocked a GOP measure that would have prevented any federal employee disciplined for sexual harassment or other sexual misconduct from getting a salary increase.

At a Palm Springs, CA city pool three teen female water polo players saw a naked man showering and reported the incident to their coaches. The police were called, but no charges were made because the man identified as a woman. The city manager says they will build a unisex shower for transgenders to use. Prediction: they’ll claim they are being treated as second class citizens.

The Department of Health and Human Services has granted South Carolina’s request for a waiver guaranteeing that faith-based foster care agencies in the state can insist on placing children only in homes with both a mother and a father.
