News from Around PA

An 18 year old man from Bangor, PA (Northampton County) traveled to California to meet a 13-year-old he had groomed online after meeting her in a chat room on the Discord app. Authorities determined he was part of a "nihilistic violent extremist" (NVE) group. Members of an NVE group called 764 have coerced victims into hurting others and even committing suicide.

40 Days for Life Pittsburgh has been holding prayer vigils and sidewalk counseling in front of Planned Parenthood on Liberty Ave in Pittsburgh for the past five decades. However, abortion advocates have become more aggressive since Roe was overturned and abortion funding has been cut. 40 Days for Life leaders are anticipating problems and will be hiring security to protect their volunteers.

From Libs of TikTok: "Mt Lebanon Public Library DELETED a post promoting an event featuring Rachel Ann Bovier, a man pretending to be a woman, following backlash. Woke activists called on the library to "moderate these comments" because people were correctly stating it's a MAN." The event is scheduled for March 12 at 7:00 p.m..

News from National Scene

Secretary of War Pete Hegseth is giving Scouting America (formerly the Boy Scouts) a chance to redeem itself in order to continue its relationship with the US military. After meeting with leadership, Hegseth says Scouting America has promised to eliminate DEI practices, policies, and language in its communications; eliminate the DEI-related "citizen in society merit badge" (required for Eagle); clarify that membership will be granted based solely on biological sex; waive registration fees for active duty, guard, and reserve families; and add a new "military service merit badge" to strengthen the organization's ties to the military. (NOTE: They will maintain the name and continue allowing homosexual leaders and scouts, as well as girls in the troops.) During Hegseth's announcement on X, he noted, "There are also additional youth and boys' organizations, groups like Trail Life USA ... that are already compliant with President Trump's executive order, that the Department may eventually support . . ."

The Kansas Legislature overrode a veto by Governor Laura Kelly (D-Kan.) to approve SB 244, thus invalidating all driver's licenses and birth certificates for transgender-identifying residents whose legal documentation does not align with their biological sex.

A former Democrat New Hampshire State Rep pled guilty to sexual exploitation of children as young as 3. He was the first openly trans lawmaker ever elected.
