News from Around PA
About 30 Central Bucks School District teachers and 30 students gathered on Tuesday to protest the recent passage of policies and administrative directives which they consider to be “anti-LGBTQ”. These policies include removing books that sexualize students from the district’s libraries, requiring students to play on sports teams that adhere to their biological sex and requiring students and teachers to only use biologically correct pronouns. However, the "Partisan, Political or Social Policy Advocacy Activities" is what led up to the protest. It bans teachers from engaging in “advocacy activities” and to display “inclusive symbols” such as the pride flag. The teachers were boycotting the administration’s townhall about the newest policy.

A former US Postal Worker from Quarryville (Lancaster County) will have his case heard by the US Supreme Court. The USPS began requiring him to deliver packages on Sunday, but the Christian worker refused to, accusing the USPS of religious discrimination for not accommodating his religious beliefs.

Philadelphia Flyers
defenseman, Ivan Provorov, has upset the LGBTQ crowd by refusing to wear a gay pride jersey for “gay pride night.” He says his Russian Orthodox religion prevents him from supporting the LGBTQ agenda.

News From National Scene
A YMCA in San Diego County, CA will be closed this weekend because of protests over a teenage girl’s complaint of a man in the women’s locker room. The 66 year-old “transgender female” (biological male) successfully sued another fitness club for not allowing him to use the women’s locker room. California’s public accommodations law allows men to use women’s facilities! Unfortunately, many of the protestors were in support of the man being in the shower room as the teenage girl who complained was showering!!

Facebook and Instagram may soon lift their ban on bare breasts – but only for those who identify as transgender and non-binary.

The University of Wisconsin women's basketball team is hosting the Pride Game in Madison. According to Twitter: Fans will receive a Wisconsin Pride hat.

A Yale University senior, who by age 18 was one of the top 100 swimmers in the country, has decided she is really a guy. She had a double mastectomy in 2021 and has been taking testosterone for eight month. She has decided she must be “true to her trans self” and is now competing on the men’s team. Recently she finished 79th out of 83 competitors!

Remember Teletubbies?? The show is sponsoring a DragCon festival in the UK that will include drag events for children, and a drag show featuring children. There will also be multiple Drag Queen Story hours during the three-day event. Kids under 8 are free when accompanied by an adult. We are a non-profit organization that is totally dependent upon financial gifts from our supporters. You can give online <https://afaofpa.org/donate/>
