A Pennsylvania law – the Educator Discipline Act - that makes it a crime to release information about teacher disciplinary complaints is an unconstitutional violation of the First Amendment, a federal judge has ruled.

Members of the PA House Freedom Caucus have filed a federal civil rights complaint in the Middle District Court of PA against President Biden, Governor Shapiro, and representatives of the Pennsylvania Department of State alleging federal civil rights violations. Pointing to the Elections Clause and the Electors Clause of the United States Constitution and Article VII, Section 1 of the PA Constitution, they note that President Biden, Governor Shapiro, and the PA Department of State have each unconstitutionally excluded Pennsylvania lawmakers from the process of regulating federal elections for President and Congress.

On December 12th an email to the University of Pennsylvania's Board of Trustees from Marc Rowan, chair of the school's Wharton Business School Board of Advisors and a major donor, posed several questions about the university's actions and mission amid criticism about its responses to antisemitism, free speech and academic freedom. He asked the trustees to consider ways to create a "community that engenders respect, even in times of disagreement" and re-examine policies on free speech and civil discourse. Some professors are now concerned, with one saying the email was a sign that conservatives want to "re-engineer the University" and another saying he plans to retire early!

News From National Scene

Over the weekend, Hailey Davidson, won the NXXT Women's Classic golf tournament in Florida. However, Haley was born James Scott Davidson. In 2015, at age 18 he began taking cross-sex hormones and in 2021 had his healthy body parts removed. The NXXT is the feeder league into the LPGA, which removed its

"female at birth" requirement back in 2010.
