News From Around PA

The Democratic Legislative Campaign Committee (DLCC) is targeting State Senator Mastriano for his attendance and the January 6 rally in DC.

The DLCC has also created a “Republican insurrectionists” website which targets GOP legislators that signed letters concerning election irregularities. The PA legislators specifically targeted on this website are those who signed onto a Dec. 4th letter to PA’s Congressional delegation asking them to object to the Electoral College vote on January 6th. NOTE: The true purpose of such a website is to intimidate!

Flags supporting the legalization of marijuana and LGBTQ rights were removed from outside and inside PA Lt. Gov. John Fetterman’s office. The state Dept. of General Services says they do not comply with a provision in a budget bill passed recently.

A Muhlenberg College Institute of Public Opinion poll indicates that about one-third of Pennsylvanians and two-thirds of Republicans who voted in 2020 do not have any confidence in the accuracy of the results.

The owner of the Horsham Athletic Club is being targeted because he organized a bus trip to DC on January 6th. A petition drive started by a Doylestown resident asked schools, businesses and medical facilities to distance themselves from the club.

Senator Pat Toomey joined 25 other Senators in signing a letter to President Biden voicing concerns about his recent executive orders targeting the oil and gas industries.

An online petition to recall Senator Toomey has garnered thousands of signatures. However, a recall is impossible as the US Constitution does not provide for such an action.

News From National Scene

US Army chaplain Major Andrew Calvert is under investigation for posting on the Army Times Facebook page that those who identify as transgender are mentally unfit to serve in the military because of their denial of their biological sex.

Of the over 40 executive orders that President Biden signed his first seven days, one banned the term “China virus” in all federal agencies.

A Norwegian lawmaker has nominated Black Lives Matter for the 2021 Nobel Peace Prize for bringing attention to racial inequities around the world.

Faithful America—a group originally founded by the National Council of Churches and funded in the past by George Soros -- is petitioning for the removal of Franklin Graham as the CEO of the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association and Samaritan’s Purse because of an online post about election integrity.
