News From Around PA

LGBTQ community grasping at straws: The headline says “Valley Forge Park Talk Focuses on Gay Revolutionary War General.” However, further down the article the truth comes out -- “historians believe he was an openly gay man” (emphasis added). The park’s press release states attendees will get to learn about the “gay man who saved the American Revolution.” It further states the virtual event is titled “The Lives of Monuments: General von Steuben and LGBTQ+ History in Monuments.”

Meadville (Crawford County) will hold GayDay in Diamond Park on July 11.

Haverford College (Delaware County) has approved an amendment to the school’s Social Honor Code which means students could be punished if other students determine they’ve committed and “act of microaggression.”

Erie Gay News articles from 1992 to the present can now be found on the PA Power

Library. Does your school allow students to have access to the PA Power Library? It has MANY problems beyond Erie Gay News!
