

American Family Association of Pennsylvania Weekly Update

Seeking to Expose Attacks on Faith, Family and Freedom with a few wins thrown in

Volume 15, Issue 21

June 14, 2025

Remember: Printable versions found online

News from Around PA

Good Bill: SB 843 – Do No Harm Act – banning “gender-affirming care” on gender-confused minors

State Rep Malcolm Kenyatta was re-elected to the vice-chair position of the Democrat National Committee after a majority voted to redo the previous vice-chair elections.

Philadelphia’s official tourism agency, Visit Philadelphia, has installed a 10-foot, 250-pound sculpture — entitled “In Plain Sight” — features the letters T and Q along with a plus sign to “illustrate the trans community, the queer community, and any marginalized community that falls amongst that spectrum.”

Delaware County Council voted unanimously, 5-0, to approve Resolution 2025-09, which designates the county as a “safe haven for LGBTQ+ people”.

NWPA Pride Alliance will be holding “Pride on the Bay 2025” on June 28th in Liberty Park in Erie. Sponsors are Erie Insurance, Erie Food Co-op, and Central Outreach Wellness.

Pittsburgh Dyke March recently took place. According to social media, “Pittsburgh Dyke March has stood up for our trans sisters, brothers and siblings. Trans dykes are Pittsburgh and trans dykes are here to stay!”

Steel City Softball hosted their first ever drag softball tournament and fundraiser.

News from National Scene

American Federation of Teachers president, Randi Weingarten, has resigned from the Democrat National Committee after disagreements with the DNC chair. She served on the committee for 23 years.

It was officially Pride Night at Dodger Stadium and the Los Angeles Dodgers pitcher Clayton Kershaw decided to send a message. The team was mandated to wear caps with the traditional LA logo, but with rainbow-colored letters. Kershaw had embroidered on the side: Genesis 9:12-16!

After pressure from the Trump Administration, Children’s Hospital of Los Angeles has announced it will be shuttering its Center for Transyouth Health and Development, which has 3,000 “patient families”. It currently provides puberty blockers, hormones and surgical procedures for “trans youth” on public insurance.

A male convicted killer who identifies as female remains in a women’s prison in Illinois despite efforts by prison officials to get him transferred to a male facility. He was transferred to the women’s prison in April 2019 and within two months had raped a woman.

Mount Saint Mary College in New York has a lecturer teaching psychiatric nurse practitioner students that beginning at nine years old, children can begin puberty suppression, even if they haven’t experienced “dysphoria.”

We are a non-profit organization that is totally dependent upon financial gifts from our supporters. You can give online <https://afaofpa.org/donate/>

Gab, Telegram, X, Truth Social

Publication of the AFA of PA, POB 1048, Franklin, PA 16323
Phone: 814-271-9078
Fax: 814-437-5432
Website: <https://afaofpa.org>