Podcast: Guest - Phillip Jauregui; Supreme Court's tragic decision not to take PA's election cases.

News From Around PA

Congressman Brian Fitzpatrick (PA-1) voted with Democrats to pass two gun control bills.

A lesbian former assistant director of music and worship at St. Joseph's University in Philly is appealing the dismissal of her anti-bias lawsuit against the school. She is requesting in excess of $150,000 in damages and a court order that the school implement LGBT sensitivity training for its employees.

The Philly Trans March produced the 5th annual Philly Black Trans History: A Multigenerational Panel Discussion. One of the panelists was David, Mx Philadelphia Leather, who was asked to comment on "how the leather and kink community can be more inclusive of Black trans people." His response, "They need to let us in."

LGTBQ advocates across PA are asking the state to modify the demographic questions asked by COVID vaccine providers to include questions about sexual orientation and gender identity. Currently when it comes to the question of gender, the options are "male, female, unknown".

News From National Scene

A report issued by the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children revealed that there were 20 million child sexual abuse images on Facebook in 2020!

Murchinson, TX became the 22nd city to declare itself a Sanctuary for the Unborn and banning abortions. The unanimous decision prohibits abortion within city limits and prevents abortion businesses from opening there.

The ACLU has launched a petition drive to urge President Biden to issue an Executive Order "giving trans, non-binary and gender nonconforming people access to accurate IDs." They want the EO to remove the medical letter requirement and add an "X" designation.

The US Dept. of Ed has suspended a Trump administration investigation that found students and facility at the Evanston-Skokie, IL school district were discriminated against through the use of racial "affinity groups."

It has been confirmed by the Secretary of Defense and Veterans Affairs Secretary that taxpayers will now fund "sex reassignment surgery" for transgenders in the active military as well as veterans.

The recently signed COVID relief bill did not include the Hyde Amendment, thus forcing taxpayers to fund abortion on demand. Also, a provision in the bill could block states from cutting taxes if they accept the money. Depending on how the text is interpreted, the measure could also make it illegal for states to create new tax credit programs used for expanding school choice.
