News From Around PA

By a vote of 8 to 1, Penncrest School District (Crawford County) has banned CRT and other anti-American indoctrination

Sean Meloy is seeking to be PA's first openly 'gay' congressman as he runs in the 17th congressional district race. He is running against two other Democrats in the primary.

March 31 is "Transgender Day of Visibility". Transfamily in Erie is featuring a walk around Perry Square!

Two other 'gay' candidates in PA's primary: Brian Sims for Lt. Governor and Malcolm Kenyatta for US Senate. Both currently serve in State House
FL Governor Ron DeSantis declared University of VA freshman and Florida native Emma Weyant, who came in second after U Penn's "transgender female" Lia Thomas, as the rightful winner in NCAA Division 1 Swimming.

News From National Scene
GOP governors in Indiana and Utah vetoed bills that would have protected women's sports from the participation of "transgender females" - males who identify as female. The Utah legislature quickly moved to override Governor Spencer Cox's veto, but what will the GOP supermajority in Indiana's House and Senate do about Eric Holcomb's veto?

LGBTQIA+ employees at Disney are outraged that CEO Bob Chapek did not take a stronger stance against Florida's Parental Rights in Education bill or as they call it, the "Don't Say Gay Bill." So, they have chosen to restore the scene of two female characters kissing in Pixar's new Toy Story spinoff film "Lightyear"!!

ESPN statement: "ESPN believes in inclusivity and denounces legislation and actions across the United States that infringe on any human rights. We stand with our LGBTQIA+ colleagues, friends, families, and fans. We'll continue to partner with organizations that support the LGTBQIA+ community. . . ."

The Securities and Exchange Commission proposed rules that would force publicly traded companies to reveal the ways climate change could threaten their businesses and their own contributions to global warming.

Rev. Brandon Robertson, lead pastor of Metanoia Church, a "digital progressive faith community", declares Jesus never said He was the only way to heaven and that there's not one single verse in the Bible that condemns homosexuality. He has worked with the DNC, the US Dept. of State and the Dept. of Health and Human Services. He was also named by the Human Rights Campaign, the nation's largest homosexual lobby group, as "one of the top faith-leaders leading the fight for LGBGQ+ equality". Oh, by the way, he identifies as homosexual.
