News From Around PA

The day after the mid-term elections the Human Rights Campaign, the nation's largest homosexual lobby group, touted the victories of its endorsed candidates Governor Tom Wolf; U.S. Senator Bob Casey; Representatives Brendan Boyle, Dwight Evans and Michael Doyle.

The PA House is now the home of a second homosexual man. Malcolm Kenyatta won the race for the open seat in the 181st District. He will join Brian Sims as the second homosexual male from Philly in the State House.

Lesbian Kristin Seale was unable to unseat incumbent State Rep Christopher Quinn of the 168th District.

Harrisburg City Council has introduced a resolution to officially oppose therapy for those with unwanted same—sex attraction. Unlike Philadelphia, Allentown, Reading, Pittsburgh, State College, Yardley and Doylestown which have all banned talk therapy for minors with unwanted same-sex attraction, Harrisburg cannot legally pass an ordinance which supersedes state law.

Penn State Behrend LGBTQIA organization, is now the Gender and Sexuality Club.

News From National Scene

Judge Brian Morris of the United States District Court for Montana, an Obama appointee, has blocked construction of the Keystone XL Pipeline saying the Trump administration “simply discarded” the effect the project would have on climate change.

In Rowan County, KY county clerk Kim Davis lost her re-election bid. Davis was jailed after the US Supreme Court legalized so-called same-sex marriage Citing her religious beliefs, she refused to issue “marriage” licenses to homosexuals.

There was a referendum on the Lyon County, NV ballot that would have banned “legal brothels.” After a massive campaign that distorted the “benefits” of having legal brothels in the county, i.e. all the taxes they pay and the money they donate to the local libraries, etc., 81% of the voters voted to keep the brothels!

The US Supreme Court has announced it will take up the case of the giant cross in Bladensburg, MD. The 40 foot tall WWI memorial was built by the American Legion in 1925, but the American Humanist Association says it is unconstitutional!

The Victory Fund, which only endorses open LGBT candidates, saw 154 victories on election day.
