News from Around PA

Earlier this year Philly was named the city with the highest STI rates in the country. Philly’s “answer” to the problem is to hand out free condoms – 800,000 so far this year with a goal of 1 million. “Philly Keep on Loving” offers free HIV and STI testing, condoms and lube kits. While “Take Control Philly” targets youth ages 13-19 offering them free condoms and testing.

Due to the “uncertainty of the political landscape”, Philly’s first openly LGBTQ+ council member, Rue Landau, introduced a resolution authorizing the Committee on Law and Government to hold hearings on the city’s preparedness to safeguard immigrants, the LGBTQ+, and “reproductive freedoms”.

News From National Scene

An episode of Disney’s children’s cartoon series Moon Girl and Devil Dinosaur has been shelved, apparently over a transgender high school athlete.

Agencies within the Biden Administration including the Dept. of Labor, State Dept., Centers for Disease Control’s Division of HIV Prevention, the Veterans Health Administration Office of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion and, of course, the Dept. of Health and Human Services Assistant Sec. “Rachel” Levine marked Transgender Day of Remembrance on Wed.

Texas State Board of Education has approved the use of a Bible-infused curriculum. It is optional for schools to adopt, but they will receive additional funding if they do so.

A study by the medical watchdog “Do No Harm”, which has a goal of exposing wokeness in the medical profession, found that out of 28 medical specialty societies, 26 have adopted official positions relating to affirmative action or racism, climate change, the Russian invasion of Ukraine, immigration policy, or the conflict between Israel and Hamas since 2010.

Graphic artist Lorie Smith was sued by the Colorado Civil Rights Commission seven years ago. Her crime:

refusing to make a website for a “same-sex wedding” thus violating that state’s public accommodations law. The Supreme Court ruled in her favor and Colorado will pay her $1.5 million. (NOTE: The danger of adding ‘sexual orientation’ to laws.)

A Texas father has lost all parental rights to his sons after his ex-wife moved with them to California. His ex-wife wants to raise their 12-year-old son James as a “girl” named “Luna” – including puberty blockers, cross sex hormones and surgery. The father has been in this battle for eight years.

President Joe Biden secretly awarded Cecile Richards, president of Planned Parenthood from 2006 to 2018, the Presidential Medal of Freedom, the nation’s highest civilian honor.
