News From National Scene
Planned Parenthood's Super PAC announced it plans to spend at least $45 million in 2020 on keeping Democrat control of the US House and getting a Democrat majority in the US Senate and taking back the White House.

Sen. Jeanne Shaheen (D-NH) added an amendment to a recent foreign affairs spending bill that would provide almost $60 million to several US organizations that list abortion as part of their core mission. She has also boasted of adding funds to the United Nations Population Fund.

Hoping to appease climate change fanatics a series of total power shutoffs of at least five days by Pacific Gas & Electric began in every county of the California Bay Area, along with a number of others to the north -- totaling 34. About 800,000 customers are affected including hospitals, emergency services, phone networks! San Francisco was one of the few areas that still has electricity!!

Charleston, WV Mayor Amy Shuler Goodwin has canceled her upcoming appearance at the West Virginia Book Festival over a presentation by "Ender's Game" author Orson Scott Card. She had unsuccessfully asked event organizers to cancel the event because of Card's "history of homophobic, transphobic and racist views."
