News From National Scene

Roanoke College's entire female swim team has taken a bold stand against allowing males who identify as female to swim on their team citing lost hopes and dreams.

At a Chicago town hall event, speaker after speaker (mostly black Chicagoans) blasted the city's plan to take away a community football field and hand it over to illegal aliens.

Eighth Circuit panel rules unanimously that an Iowa school may not compel its students to use "preferred pronouns" of students who identify as transgender.

The organization Shout Your

Abortion has placed billboards with pro-abortion messages on Interstate 55 through pro-life states -

Arkansas, Louisiana,

Tennessee- leading into pro-abortion Illinois.

Apparently, there is a shortage of newborn kidneys, but a California surgeon has the "solution" – taking kidneys from terminal newborns!

Specifically, he said, "We have a huge untapped pool of available organs that can be used for transplants."

The Loudon County Public Schools (Virginia) victim of the sexual assault by a male student who identified as female is suing the district for its inaction. Instead of addressing the issue, the school simply transferred the perpetrator to another school where he also sexually assaulted another female victim in the girls' bathroom.

The lawsuit is seeking at least $30 million.

About 50 Clemson College

(South Carolina) students held a march to protest the school's removal of tampons from the men's bathrooms on campus demanding special protections for "transgender, gender non-conforming students and the wider

LGBTQIA+ community."

We are a non-profit organization that is totally dependent upon
