Approximately 200 people participated in the 10th annual Philly Trans March recently held at Hunting Park in North Philly. District Attorney Larry Krasner had been invited to speak at the event, but was booed off the stage with derogatory shouts against the police. As they marched down the streets they shouted “No justice, no peace! Defund the police! (NOTE: Humm, sounds exactly like marchers in other cities!)

Lessons the participants of the Trans March expect Americans to learn: A black non-binary burlesque artist and community organizer said, “One thing that people don’t quite understand is to unlearn those deeply ingrained thoughts of the binary, like assuming that a person that has breasts is a woman, and someone that might have a lot of facial hair is a man. To unlearn that is uncomfortable.” Also, even though Philadelphia has

“gender identity” in all its policies, one trans speaker still demanded, “. . . this city has time to redeem itself and affirm us in the process. We need affirmation to show up in social policy.”

Pro-homosexual Human Rights Campaign (HRC) has come out with its Congressional Scorecard. Senator Bob Casey, Jr, received a 97% because he did not line up with HRC’s position on weakening the Religious Freedom Restoration Act. Senator Toomey received a zero. Congressmen Brendan Boyle (PA 2), Dwight Evans (PA 3), Madeleine Dean (PA 4), Mary Gay Scanlon (PA 5), Chrissy Houlahan (PA 6), Susan Wild (PA 7), Matt Cartwright (PA 8), Mike Doyle (PA 18) all received 100 percent. Conor Lamb (PA 17) received a 94 %. All GOP received a zero rating, except Brian Fitzpatrick (PA 1) who received 71%.

News From National Scene

Twitter has worked overtime this week blocking tweets by White House health expert Dr. Scott Atlas, who presented evidence calling into question the use of masks by the general population. Twitter also prevented the posting of links to several New York Post articles alleging improprieties involving presidential candidate Joe Biden, his son Hunter and the Ukrainian energy company Burisma. Twitter also blocked the New York Post’s Twitter account!

Finally, Facebook and Twitter’s censorship of conservative thought or that not approved by the Left has resulted in the Federal Communications Commission chair Ajit Pai announcing he will move to “clarify the meaning” of Section 230 of 1996 Communications Decency Act, which is currently protecting the social media giants. He notes social media companies do not have a First Amendment right to a special immunity denied to other media outlets. The Senate Judiciary Committee has called on both CEOs to testify before the committee. They are prepared to issue subpoenas.
