News from Around PA

Pennsylvania has joined 22 other Democrat-run states in challenging new conditions on federal family-planning grants (Title X) that require recipients to end support for “transgender-inclusive programs” and DEI (diversity, equity and inclusion practices.)

The Women’s Law Project, Pennsylvania Coalition for Trans Youth, Pennsylvania Youth Congress, Trans YOUNiting, TAKE Resource Center, Eastern PA Trans Equity Project, Planned Parenthood Pennsylvania Advocates, Education Law Center of Pennsylvania, Fairness Pennsylvania, the ACLU of Pennsylvania, Centre LGBT+, and Red Wine & Blue have signed onto a letter asking the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association (PIAA) to clarify its position on “trans students” in sports. They are saying PA law requires PIAA to all boys in girls’ sports! This is incorrect!! The PA Human Relations Commission simply added ‘sexual orientation and gender identity’ as protected classes to the PA Human Relations Act without legislative input, but this is not law! If it were, why would the Democrats keep pushing for the passage of bills like HB 300???

Pittsburgh suburb Brookline, in the South Hills is holding its first “pride” event today.

News from National Scene

The US House passed H Res 1490 Condemning Socialism by a vote of 220 – 192. The Resolution stated the US House “condemns and denounces socialism in all its forms, including the Democratic Socialists of America, and opposes the implementation of socialist policies in the United States; reaffirms its support for free, fair, and secure elections and calls for enactment of the SAVE America Act; reiterates that American elections are for American citizens only. Only eight Democrats voted for it – none from PA. Eleven Dems (none from PA) and seven GOP (none from PA) did not vote. Two answered “Present” – PA’s Chrissy Houlahan was one of them.

US Supreme Court has ruled twice in recent months that parents have a fundamental right in the upbringing of their children and schools must respect the parents. However, some don’t get it! Chatham School District in New Jersey is being sued for allowing students to change their gender and pronouns at school without their parents’ knowledge. The school district is also threatening to suspend students if they refuse to use the preferred pronouns of those who are confused about their gender.

President Trump has called upon the Smithsonian Institution to replace an existing modern art piece with a 30-foot-tall statue of President George Washington outside of the National Museum of American History in Washington, D.C., and open an exhibit in Washington’s honor.
