News From Around PA

Montgomery County detectives served another search warrant on Attorney General Kathleen Kane's office in Harrisburg.

Office of Disciplinary Counsel, which investigates misconduct by PA lawyers, says it's trying to protect law enforcement and the public with its effort to have the state Supreme Court suspend Attorney General Kathleen Kane's law license.

Starbucks has "personally apologized" to a Philly police officer who was told he could not use the restroom at a Center City location.

Gloria Casarez, co-founder of Philadelphia's Dyke March and the city's inaugural director of the Office of LGBT Affairs, will be memorialized in a Gayborhood mural. Project support includes the Mayor's office and the Philadelphia Human Relations Commission.

News from National Scene

GOP Rep. Duncan Hunter, a member of the House Armed Services Committee, wants Navy Secretary Ray Mabus to resign for his controversial comments dismissing the recent Marine Corps study which showed that men outperform women on combat tasks. Mabus waved the study off by saying that male Marine officials went into the experiment with a biased mindset and he does not intend to seek an exemption by Oct. 1 to keep any combat roles male-only.

Today in a 241-187 vote the House voted to block Planned Parenthood funding for one year while a congressional investigation takes place. Three Republicans, including PA Congressman Charlie Dent (15th), voted 'No.' Lawmakers also passed a bill in a 248-177 vote creating penalties on abortion doctors who do not try to save babies born alive after an abortion.

The general who led the Army's investigation into the disappearance of Sgt. Bowe Bergdahl from his remote outpost in Afghanistan in 2009 said sentencing the sergeant to prison would be "inappropriate."

Fuller Seminary has decided not to offer tenure to a New Testament professor, J.R. Daniel Kirk, who holds an unbiblical view of marriage.

Chaplain Wes Modder has been exonerated by the Navy. Modder was accused of failing to show "tolerance and respect" toward "gay" sailors.

Obama has nominated an open homosexual to be the next Secretary of the Army. We are a non-profit organization that is totally dependent upon financial gifts from our supporters. You can give online here <http://afaofpa.org/donate/>
