After the removal of a “pride” display in the Monroeville Public Library, LGBTQ activists are calling for a formal code of conduct for borough council members and an investigation into whether officials followed Pennsylvania’s open-meetings law.

New Hope Celebrates (Bucks County) will mark LGBTQ+ History Month with OUT in October 2026, “a monthlong series of events featuring wellness programming, theater, family activities, drag performances and community gatherings across the Delaware River towns and surrounding region.”

Liberty Counsel filed a federal complaint with the U.S. Department of Education on behalf of parents whose minor daughter was secretly treated like a boy by Pennsbury School District (Bucks County). The school was socially transitioning the girl for three years without the parents’ knowledge or consent.

Penn State Dickinson Law defended a mandatory first-year class about “antiracism” recently after at least two students accused the school of political indoctrination.

After receiving over 10,000 comments opposing the 502-page changes to the Department of Health’s “disease-tracking proposal”, they have been withdrawn – for now. A spokesman said they will incorporate feedback, and resubmit the public health rules “once Pennsylvanians’ feedback has been adequately incorporated.

News from National Scene

A Netflix adaptation of C.S. Lewis’s beloved children’s book Narnia: The Magician’s Nephew comes with another indication of the gender distortion so prevalent in today’s world! Meryl Streep has been cast as the voice of Aslan – you remember the male lion with the glorious mane who portrayed Jesus, the Lion of Judah.

NYC Mayor Mamdani’s administration is pulling out of a federal program meant to help veterans transition out of homelessness, alleging the Trump administration would have required NYC to discriminate against transgender vets seeking shelter to receive the funding. But federal officials are denying that claim, and say the city walked away from the program after the veterans agency notified the Mamdani administration the city would receive less money than it had in the past.

Young America’s Foundation’s new report highlights a leftwing ideological bias embedded in higher education’s curricula. The 195-page report states, “Liberal and Marxist ideology continues to permeate the curriculum, with courses centered on Karl Marx, Angela Davis, colonialism, white supremacy, LGBTQ and gender ideology, and contemporary applications of Marxism.”
